

melody above the other notes of the roll. Use whatever finger you like (most choose the Thumb) to play the single melody notes that aren't part of a roll pattern. When you reach the end, hit the final note, turn around and start right over.

A sound file for This Land has been posted at the BNL website. If you would like tabs and a practice CD for seven easy-to-play songs that feature the Forward roll, send $5 payable to me (see address on page 41). Each song is played with guitar accompaniment—first slow, then medium/fast. (continued on next page)
